Norwegian Explorers April 2013 Notice

“The Monster of Gyre” by the Red-Throated League at 4 p.m., Sunday, April 21”

The Red-Throated Leagues will be re-enacting the radio play “The Monster of Gyre”, with a special musical guest, at the Pavek Museum of Broadcasting (3517 Raleigh Avenue, St. Louis Park, 952/926-8198, www.pavekmuseum.org) on Sunday, April 21, 2013 at 4 pm.

Donations to defer the cost of this performance are appreciated.

The Norwegian Explorers Study Group-Saturday, April 20th at 2:00 pm

The Norwegian Explorers Study Group will be at the Merriam Park Library, 1831 Marshall Ave., St. Paul, 651-642-0385. We will be exploring The Adventure of the Creeping Man. Chris Redmond’s delicate question: “The Creeping Man has sometimes been cited, even published, as an example of Arthur Conan Doyle's science fiction. Is it really more satisfying to an enthusiast of early sf or to a follower of Sherlock Holmes and the early detective story -- or is it equally unsatisfactory to both?” (<http://www.sherlockian.net/canon/stories/cree.html>)

The Next Tri-Annual Sherlockian Conference in Minnesota

In case you missed earlier announcements: On August 9-11, 2013, The Norwegian Explorers of Minnesota and the Friends of the Sherlock Holmes Collections at the University of Minnesota, and the University of Minnesota Libraries will hold a conference to explore aspects of Sherlock Holmes: Through Time and Place.

The conference will take place at the Elmer L. Andersen Library at the University of Minnesota, home of the Sherlock Holmes Collections, the world’s largest collection of Sherlock Holmes-related material. The conference will feature presentations by a stellar group of international Sherlockians, vendor tables, a silent auction of selected duplicate items from the Collections, an exhibit of rare and unique materials from the Collections, a dramatic performance by the Red-Throated League of the Norwegian Explorers, and the Annual Meeting of the Friends of the Sherlock Holmes Collections. Go to: www.norwegianexplorers.org to register. The cost is $165 for the three days. You can register using credit cards, paypal, check.
